

DBS Eligibility Flowchart

* Government guidance states that supervision must be 'reasonable in all the circumstances to ensure the protection of children'. This means that it is 'regular and day to day' (supervision must not be concentrated in first few weeks and then tail off) and is undertaken by someone who is in Regulated Activity themselves.